

Mark Wright and Michelle Keegan help raise vital funds at Haven House Ball

AN ARRAY of famous faces helped raise £89,000 at an annual Autumn Ball for Haven House Children's Hospice. The black tie event was held at the exclusive Grosvenor House Hotel in Park Lane. TV presenter and Heart Radio DJ Mark Wright, a Haven House ambassador, hosted the ball and attended with his wife, actress and model Michelle Keegan, and TV1 presenter Richard Arnold was the auctioneer on the night and entertained guests with his exuberant wit. Prizes included a one-week stay for 10 guests at the illustrious Azzurra Castle on Grenada in the West Indies and the use of an eight-seater private jet flying from Stansted Harrods Aviation to a European destination.

After a three-course dinner guests were shown a short film featuring Haven House children George and Ruby-Mo, and their mums Jade Morgan and Kiran Madan. Both Jade and Kiran were present at the ball and received a standing ovation from the teary-eyed audience.

BLAKE EZRA PHOTOGRAPHY

Mark Wright with Haven House mums Kiran Madan (L) and Jade Morgan (R)

Mark with guests

Michelle Keegan, Richard Arnold and Mark Wright with sponsors Redburn

Richard Arnold

Michelle Keegan plays game

Mark Wright with Haven House sign

Michelle Heaton with Casey Bachelor

Guests watch film